2. PAYMENT INFORMATION: You lock in your tuition upon receipt of a non-refundable $250 registration fee. Once locked-in, your price is guaranteed for up to two years from the date of your graduation. You may not lock in an alumni or repeat tuition. All payments except late fees are credited toward your bar review course tuition until tuition is paid in full. To avoid a $75 late fee, you must pay your remaining balance by December 1 immediately prior to the winter bar review course or April 1 immediately prior to the summer bar review course. Only bank checks, certified checks, firm checks and money orders will be accepted after the applicable payment deadline. If you choose not to take the bar review course and would like to purchase books only, all payments less the non-refundable $250 registration fee will be credited toward the price of the books.
3. REFUNDABLE BOOK DEPOSIT: A $250 refundable book deposit is required. To receive a refund of your book deposit, you must return all of your bar review course books by August 31 (after the July bar) or March 31 (after the February bar) as directed by the BARBRI office administering your bar review course. BARBRI will refund your book deposit within 75 days of receipt of your books. If you choose to keep your bar review books, you forfeit your refundable book deposit. NOTE: Book deposit refunds can only be made to students who have paid in full for the bar review course.
4. BARBRI GUARANTEE: If you take a BARBRI bar review course for the first time for a particular state and are unsuccessful on that state's bar exam, you may repeat the same course for the same state the next time a course is offered without paying tuition. Proof that you sat for and did not pass that state's bar exam is required. If you take a BARBRI bar review course for the first time for a particular state and do not sit for that state's bar exam, you may repeat the same course for the same state by paying ½ of the alumni tuition in effect at the time of taking the repeat course. Your repeat course is only available for the next exam offered and does not include any upgrades, including supplemental workshops or a second set of books. All guarantee students are entitled to new lecture handouts with their repeat course. If a new edition of books has been released, you must pay a $250 refundable book deposit to enroll in the repeat course. If the edition of books is the same as those used in your original course, you must pay a $250 refundable book deposit if you wish to receive new books. Alumni tuition will apply on all subsequent courses for up to 10 years.
5. COURSE LOCATION: Locations are subject to availability and depend on sufficient student interest. Seating may be limited. Your course location selection cannot be confirmed until your final semester of law school and your account is paid in full. Location reservations are processed in the order of receipt.
6. NOTICE OF CANCELLATION (MUST BE IN WRITING):
   (a) You may cancel your enrollment and receive a full refund of all payments made, without penalty or obligation, within three business days from the date of this agreement, provided any materials in your possession are returned.
   (b) You may cancel after three business days if bar review classes have not started or been accessed online provided all unused materials and the course ID are returned. BARBRI will issue a refund of all payments made less the $250 non-refundable registration fee.
   (c) Once bar review course materials and ID have been issued, you may cancel within five days of accessing or attending classes. BARBRI will issue a refund of all payments made less the $250 non-refundable registration fee, and $50 for each class attended or accessed up to the date of receipt of your materials and ID.
   (d) You are not entitled to any refund after five classes have been accessed or attended.
   (e) All refunds will be issued within 75 days of BARBRI's receipt of your written notice of cancellation.

Note: For purposes of this section, materials and ID must be returned to the BARBRI office administering your bar review course in the same condition as when received. If your materials are not returned in the same condition as when received, BARBRI may withhold from your refund either the retail purchase price per book or the price for a set of books, depending on the extent of use or damage.*

7. TRANSFERABILITY: Upon full payment of your non-refundable $250 registration fee, you may transfer this enrollment and your tuition payment(s) to a different BARBRI jurisdiction. Once transferred, you will be enrolled in the recipient jurisdiction at the tuition price in effect in the recipient jurisdiction on the date you locked in your tuition. You will be subject to the recipient jurisdiction's taxes, terms and conditions. You may not transfer this enrollment once you have been issued bar review course materials and a course ID.
8. COPYRIGHT: You acknowledge that BARBRI owns all rights, title and interest in and to all lectures and course materials, all of which are protected by copyright laws and shall not be shared, copied, recorded or reproduced by any means for any purpose.
9. ASSIGNMENT: You may not assign this contract or any of your rights hereunder.

11. MODIFICATION: Representations, whether oral or written, made by any person, including a BARBRI student representative, that may modify any term of this agreement, will be of no effect unless such representation is in writing and issued by a BARBRI Director.

NOTE: By signing this Enrollment Agreement and making an initial enrollment payment to BARBRI, you are not committing yourself to taking the BARBRI Bar Review course or making full payment to BARBRI for such course.
