ABOUT THE BARBRI MPRE REVIEW COURSE

Our review course for the Multistate Professional Responsibility Exam (MPRE) consists of a one-day, four-hour lecture on the ABA Model Rules of Professional Conduct and the ABA Model Code of Judicial Ethics. Our course also includes a lecture handout, comprehensive outline, a Mini Review® outline, over 200 practice questions, flow charts and graphs, and StudySmart® Professional Responsibility software.

To participate in BARBRI's FREE Review Course for the MPRE, you must register in advance. Students can register on the BARBRI website (look for the blue "Sign Up for BARBRI" box on the right-hand side of the website at www.barbri.com). Alternatively, they can submit a completed FREE MPRE Review Course Application to the office or a BARBRI student representative by the course registration deadline. Registering for the BARBRI FREE MPRE Review Course does not obligate you to take the full BARBRI bar review course.

The enrollment deadline to register for our MPRE Review Course is Friday, July 13, 2012. If you have not enrolled for the review course by the deadline date, then you can enroll late. However, you will not be guaranteed a seat in our review course or course materials.

ABOUT THE MPRE

Enrolling for the BARBRI MPRE Review Course does not register you to take the exam. You must also register separately to take the actual MPRE (exam) with the National Conference of Bar Examiners by the applicable deadline – www.ncbex.org.

Regular Application Deadline	June 26, 2012	Exam Fee: $70
Late Application Deadline	July 12, 2012	Exam Fee: $140 ($70 Fee + $70 Late Fee)

The Multistate Professional Responsibility Exam (MPRE) is administered three times a year – March, August, and November.

BARBRI complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) and provides appropriate auxiliary aids and services to students with disabilities to ensure effective communication. If you have a disability and want an accommodation under the ADA, please ask for a "Request for Accommodation" form from your local BAR/BRI office or by phone at (800) 621-0498. REQUESTS MUST BE MADE AT LEAST 90 DAYS BEFORE THE COURSE BEGINS TO ENSURE TIMELY RECEIPT.
