RULES REGARDING THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION-BARBRI BAR REVIEW SCHOLARSHIP

The American Bar Association's Law Student Division (ABA/LSD) and BARBRI will be awarding partial bar review scholarships to ABA/LSD members who are December 2011 or May 2012 graduates to be applied toward BARBRI Bar Review tuition. Scholarships will vary in amount depending upon the applicant's financial condition and the size of the applicant pool. These scholarships are not assignable and may not be combined with any other BARBRI discount, other than the early enrollment discount.

ELIGIBILITY
Applicants must be active members of the ABA/LSD and must not have a commitment for full-time legal employment with a salary in excess of $50,000 by the application deadline. Furthermore, all applicants expressly agree to renounce the scholarship if they receive a commitment for full-time employment paying in excess of $50,000 per year by graduation from law school.

APPLICATION PROCESS
Please complete all of the below-requested information. Applicants MUST also include a statement explaining why a scholarship is deserved (amount of loans, lack of job or job prospects, commitment to law, etc.).
Applications submitted without a statement of reasons will be rejected. Applications should be sent to:

BARBRI Bar Review
Attn: ABA Scholarship Committee
One N. Dearborn, Suite 650
Chicago, IL 60602

Please note that the Illinois BARBRI office is moving in December 2011. Visit the IL page of barbri.com for the new address if you are using this form.

DEADLINE
For February 2012 bar examinees, applications must be postmarked by November 16, 2011.
For July 2012 bar examinees, applications must be postmarked by February 10, 2012.

NOTIFICATION
February 2012 bar examinees will receive notification by December 31, 2011.
July 2012 bar examinees will receive notification by March 31, 2012.
